

gravity of minerals. The top of the table consists of parallel riffles which become gradually shallower towards the exit end of the table trapping the heavier (gold) particles while the lighter gangue particles are washed off the end of the table.

Winze. Interior shafts sunk from one level to another for development and ventilation purposes. The only difference from a raise is in the direction the opening was dug.

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF
CHARLOTTE AND MECKLENBURG COUNTY
CHARLOTTE, N.C.

